PRESS RELEASE

"Career Days" at Aristotle University

Thessaloniki, 18/11/2026

To connect students, final-year students and graduates of the university directly with the job market, the Liaison Office of Aristotle University is organizing "Career Days 2026" on Friday 27 November 2026, from 11:00 to 18:00, at the Thessaloniki Concert Hall (Foyer of Building M2).

The event targets students and graduates of Aristotle University and of other tertiary education institutions. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn about the participating companies and their employment programs.

Businesses and organizations will meet students and graduates, present their work environment and look for new talent.

Students and graduates will have the opportunity to ask questions, listen, network and discover possibilities they may not have considered.
