ANNOUNCEMENT

Workshop at Aristotle University on Quality in Audiovisual Translation and Accessibility

Thessaloniki, May 7, 2026

A workshop titled “Multilingualism Workshop: Enhancing Quality in Audiovisual Translation and Media Accessibility” will take place on Monday, May 11, 2026, from 9:00 to 14:30, at the Auditorium of the Central Library of the Aristotle University. The event aims to explore issues of quality in audiovisual translation, as well as accessibility for people with visual and hearing impairments in the media and museums.

Academics from Greece and abroad with recognized expertise in education, audiovisual translation, and quality in dubbing and subtitling will participate in the workshop. Professionals working in sign language translation and audio description will also contribute.

The workshop will take place within the Interdepartmental Postgraduate Program Interpretation and Translation of the Faculty of Philosophy at the Aristotle University, in collaboration with the Athens Representation of the Directorate-General for Translation of the European Commission.

The event is open to the public, and attendees will receive certificates of participation.

The sessions will be conducted in English.

The event will be live-streamed at the following link:
