ANNOUNCEMENT

Open Courses at the School of Philology of the School of Philosophy of Aristotle University

Thessaloniki, 14/9/2026

The School of Philology of the Faculty of Philosophy of Aristotle University is opening its doors to the public, offering members of the public the opportunity to attend undergraduate courses, free of charge, as auditors.

Building on its long-standing tradition and international distinctions, the School aims to bring university knowledge closer to society by giving everyone interested the opportunity to attend courses from its excellently accredited undergraduate programme.

The courses will begin on 28/9/2026 and will cover linguistics as well as ancient, Byzantine, and Modern Greek literature.

Participants will receive certificates of attendance. Teachers, in particular, will also have the opportunity to attend specialised courses in the teaching of literature (ancient and Modern Greek) and linguistics.
