PRESS RELEASE

“The Faces of Gender-Based Violence”: Event at Aristotle University for the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women

Thessaloniki, November 14, 2025

“The Faces of Gender-Based Violence” is the title of the event organized by the Committee for Gender Equality and the Elimination of Discrimination of Aristotle University and the Women’s Support Center iasis | Hypatia, on the occasion of the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women (November 25). The event will take place on Thursday, November 20, 2025, from 17:30 to 20:00, in the Hall of Speech and Art, on the 10th floor of the Tower of the School of Education.

According to the organizers, the event highlights the multiple dimensions of gender-based violence through scientific, social, and experiential perspectives, featuring contributions from academics, legal experts, and young researchers.

During the event, presentations will address topics such as the intergenerational transmission of gender-based violence, feminist analyses of femicide data in Greece, and the gendered aspects of revenge pornography. The goal of the event is to create a shared space for dialogue and reflection on the forms, causes, and consequences of gender-based violence, as well as on ways to promote prevention, support, and empowerment for every woman.
